

PERFECT BOUND PRODUCTS

If the cover and the first page of the book block form a spread, our Prepress will move them 5mm away from the center, where the side glue binds them together, so that that part of the page would not disappear.

The same is done if there is a frame on the sides of the page, so the content would be visually in the center of the page.